LEITH'S VERY OWN ANNUAL ARTS FESTIVAL IS BACK!

Festival week officially kicks off at 10am on June 10th with the community pageant and gala day. Our theme this year is the UNITED COLOURS OF LEITH - Celebrating our Cultural Diversity through colour.

Gala Day is a family friendly, community-led gathering at Leith Links and a great opportunity to celebrate our amazing, talented and diverse community. It's a day of free activities, performances and over 100 organisations and traders coming together to create a fantastic day out for everyone. As in previous years, we also have a varied programme of events at local venues throughout June and the return of our community tattoo at Malmaison on June 18th - lots for Leithers to love.

DATES FOR YOUR DIARY

4.20- 4.50	Jig Show

www.leithfestival.com

MAIN STAGE ACTS

Artistic director and conductor Karina Cherviakova leads the Edinburgh Ukrainian Choir Oberih - a wonderful way to open this years' main stage as we celebrate our cultural diversity. The choir glorify the Ukrainian song outside the borders of their Motherland.

Conscious Route is a rapper, MC, poet and singer-songwriter who was born in London before moving to Edinburgh over a decade ago. He recently released the Pyramid EP with shortlisted Scottish Artist of the Year, Scott Bathgate & he continues to get support from the BBC –with 'Dragon's Jaw' making it to BBC Introducing Scotland's Best Track of the Week show.

Violet Duff is the devilish diva with the voice to die for. Raising the roof with her powerhouse performances all the way around Europe & the UK, this award-winning vaudevillian chanteuse will captivate your senses with her vintage vocals and bawdy blether.

MAIN STAGE ACTS

Wicked Pitch are a small but mighty group of singers who bring their full-bodied sounds to popular music and are quickly gaining a reputation for being the 'choir with the mash ups'. Good tunes. Good Times.

Sapphire Notion are a Blues, Rock and Jazz infused music duo. With looped guitar, piano and voice, they are regular performers throughout Scotland.

The Wispz are an original Celtic/folk band from Edinburgh, fronted by Julie-Ann who shares experiences in love, sorrow, happiness and fairy-tales; a fiery Scottish soul with many a tale to tell. Expect angelic melodies and a dark twist.

MAIN STAGE ACTS

Betamax Bandits are an Edinburgh based 80s covers band performing some of the biggest and best-known pop hits from the best decade for music, including songs by Spandau Ballet, Belinda Carlisle, Erasure, ABBA, Duran Duran, Nik Kershaw, Tears for Fears and many more! Let's step into the DeLorean and go back to the 80s!

The Jig Show are a 4-piece heavy folk band from Edinburgh, Scotland. They started out in 2017 by livening up traditional ceilidh sets, using bigger backbeats and heavier guitars to create the most energetic dances they could. Continuing with this theme, their writing has expanded musically beyond their ceilidh roots, emerging with an energetic fusion of all things heavy and trad.

SPONSORED IN MEMORY OF NORRIE STEWART

A very much missed friend, a Leith resident for many years who passed away in 2021 from MND complications. A man of many talents, a man of the written word, a man of tradition, a creative man, a quiet man, a loyal man. A player with the cup winning Melrose 7s team in the 70s. A Fire Fighter based at MacDonald Road for 22 years One of the founding members of Leith FM Community Radio. One of the 3 Grumpy Old Men broadcasting team with Phil Attridge and Stewart Lochhead.

A very talented portrait artist and political satire cartoonist. A political blogger, debater and commentator. A passionate, analytical supporter of Scottish Independence. One lasting, loving memory of the man for many of his pub friends. Leaning on his special shelf at the back of the Port o Leith Bar, wearing his tweed gilet and cap (both worn in all weathers), whisky in hand. If he was looking at you over his (very colourful) glasses, you knew you had his attention!
